This shows the Herald to be, by its extensive and comprehensive circulation, the chief organ of the advertising of the Metropolis, and the medium of commanding their business wants to the public.

NOTE.

The Times, in order to make a show of business, publishes a statement pretending that it is from the official returns to the Revenue Department. This statement is made up in the Times office to suit its own purposes. No returns of the kind have ever been made to that department. Our table, given above, is taken from the official books and is strictly correct in every particular. Any one can satisfy himself on this point by inspecting the books at the Internal Revenue Office.
